Notes

Johann Michael Haydn (1737-1806) was an acclaimed and respected composer during his lifetime. Born in Rohrau, near the Austrian-Hungarian border, Haydn was a talented young singer in the famed Vienna Boys Choir. He was appointed as Kapellmeister at the court of Grosswardein (now in Hungary) in 1757. Haydn served the Archbishop of Salzburg from 1763 until his death. A prolific composer, he wrote hundreds of compositions including a Requiem which influenced the more famous setting by Mozart.

Dicite in Gentibus (MH 364) was composed on April 22, 1784, in Salzburg, Austria (the two trumpet parts were added by Haydn in 1797). This edition is based upon the autograph score, preserved in the music archive of the Bayerische Staatsbibliothek in Munich: Mus. mss. 399. The score is laid out over seven pages, eight staves per page. The title page reads: In Inventionem et Exaltationem S. Crucis di G.M. Haydn mpia. This composition is scored for SATB choir, two trumpets in C, two violins, cello, bass and continuo. The Latin text is recited as the Paschal Alleluja during Easter, during the Votive Mass of the Holy Cross.

Latin

Dicite in gentibus quia Dominus regnabit a ligno.

Dulce lignum, dulces clavos, dulcia ferens
pondera quae sola fuisti digna sustinere Regem coelorum et Dominum. Alleluja.

English

Say to the people that the Lord has reigned from the wood.

Sweet wood, sweet nails that held up his sweet being which alone were worthy to support the King of Heaven and Lord. Hallelujah.

The present edition adheres closely to the above mentioned source, noting editorial markings in parentheses. Voice parts, where notated in moveable clefs, were rewritten in treble clef; phrase markings in the voice parts were added where two or more notes occurred for a single syllable of text; textual underlay, given generally only in the soprano and tenor parts, was added to the alto and bass parts.

About the Editor

Martin Banner received his Bachelor of Music degree in Music Education from the Crane School of Music, SUNY Potsdam in upstate New York, and earned the Master of Music degree in Choral Conducting from Temple University, studying with Robert Page. As a clinician, he has presented numerous workshops, conducted choral reading sessions and participated in panel discussions at annual conferences of ACDA, the New York State School Music Association and the Music Publishers Association. Martin is a member of ACDA and NAFME. As an editor, Martin has had over 100 modern performing editions published, with an emphasis on sacred Latin works of the 18th and early 19th centuries for combined chorus and orchestra. These editions have been prepared from autograph manuscripts located in the archives of national libraries, monasteries and musical conservatories, many of which Martin has visited during research trips to Vienna, Salzburg, Melk, Munich, Bologna, Bergamo, Venice, Padova and Lucca. His numerous choral editions have been widely performed throughout North and South America, Europe, Asia and Australia, at such venues as Carnegie Hall in New York City, Symphony Hall in Boston, the Harrowgate Festival in Great Britain and the Abu Gosh Festival in Israel, and have appeared on the programs of numerous All-State Choirs, as well as ACDA and NAFME national and division honor choirs under the baton of some of America's most distinguished conductors, including Andre Thomas, Rodney Eichenberger, Anton Armstrong, Simon Carrington, Kenneth Fulton, Lynne Gackle and Weston Noble.
