Note from the Composer

The text for Dies Irae, translated “Day of Wrath,” is from the Latin Requiem Mass, or Mass for the Dead. It contains foreshadowing of impending judgment on mankind. When performing this arrangement, singers should be mindful of the fact that they are portraying something very intense and severe. This mood can be attained through the use of crisp consonants, energized accents, and intentional syllabic stress.

About the Composer

Christi Jones has been teaching Choir for seventeen years, sixteen of which have been at Young Junior High in Arlington, Texas. Choirs under her direction have performed at TMEA, SWACDA, the MS/JH National Convention, and for the State Board of Education.

Christi has had pieces published by Carl Fischer, BriLee Music, and RBC (UIL Sightreading pieces). Most of her compositions came about due to a need for one of her own ensembles, or a need/interest of her other choir director friends.

She is a member of TMEA, TCDA, ACDA, and TMAA, and is sought after as a Region Cinician and UIL Adjudicator. Christi is also on staff as a Worship Ministry Assistant at First Baptist Church in Arlington, where she directs the Children’s and Youth Choirs.

Christi comes by the choral music profession honestly, being the proud daughter of two choral directors, Charles and Toni Worley, also of Arlington. She was fortunate to study under her mother during her years at Lamar High School, where she was selected for the TMEA All-State Choir.

Christi was named Teacher of the Year at Young in 2011, and also received Runner-Up for the district’s AWARE award in 2011, 2014, and 2016.
