PERFORMANCE NOTES

"Rest Not" is based on the poem "A Psalm of Life" by American poet, Henry Wadsworth Longfellow, and shorter quotes from Goethe and Starr. Through this thought-provoking text, one can hear words of encouragement for those who seek their dreams, and optimism for those who work for positive change in this world, never resting, but always working towards these goals.

Henry Wadsworth Longfellow (1807–1882) was one of the first Americans to use native themes in his poetry, and holds an important place in American literature. Born and raised in Portland, Maine, Longfellow spent the last forty-five years of his life in Cambridge, Massachusetts. His father wanted him to become a lawyer like himself, but it was obvious at a young age that Longfellow excelled in writing and linguistics. He became a college professor at Bowdoin College and later Harvard. Some of his more famous poems include "The Village Blacksmith" (1841), "Evangeline" (1847), "The Song of Hiawatha" (1855), and "The Ride of Paul Revere" (1863).

Choral Preparation

Locate and study the poem "A Psalm of Life" by Longfellow, which was first published in 1838. Identify the passages from the original poem that appear in this song. Discuss the meaning of the words, and then express those convictions in your performance of "Rest Not."

COMPOSER

Laura Farnell is the head choral director at Boles Junior High School in Arlington, Texas where the seventh and eighth grade choral program has grown steadily since she arrived. Farnell has received the Excellence in Education Award as the outstanding junior high "Teacher of the Year" for the Arlington Independent School District. She is active as an accompanist and clinician. She especially enjoys composing and arranging for middle school groups, and has numerous works in publication.

AUDIO

The VoiceTrax CD includes a full performance with vocals of the primary voicing, an instrumental only version, and individual part predominant tracks. A pronunciation guide is included for non-English texts.
